Policy on Insurance Reimbursement:

If you have medical Insurance that provides coverage for mental health counseling, we are anxious to help you receive your maximum allowable benefits.

We will be happy to help you process your insurance claim form for your reimbursement. A completed insurance form must accompany any such request at each visit. You are responsible for mailing it to the insurance company and tracking your reimbursement.

We will gladly discuss your proposed treatment and answer any questions relating to your insurance. You must realize, however, that:

1. Your insurance is a contract between you, your employer and the insurance company. We are not a party to that contract.
2. Our fees are generally considered to fall within the acceptable range by most companies, called "Usual, Customary and Reasonable" (UCR). Some companies pay a percentage of the UCR for a given area. However, some companies reimburse based on an arbitrary "schedule" of fees, which bears no relationship to the current standard and cost of care in this area.
3. Not all services are a covered benefit in all contracts. Some insurance companies arbitrarily select certain services they will not cover.
4. If your company requests a report from us in order to process your claim, we will need to receive our normal hourly fee from you for this service.

If you have any questions about our financial policy please do not hesitate to ask us. We are here to help you.

Thank you.

I understand the following:

- Although I expect benefits from this treatment, such benefits or particular outcomes cannot be guaranteed.
- Due to the counseling or therapy, I may experience emotional strains, feel worse during treatment, and make life changes that could be distressing.
- This therapist is not providing an emergency service, and I have been informed of whom to call in an emergency or during weekend and evening hours.
- Regular attendance will produce maximum benefits, but I am free to discontinue treatment at any time.
- Conversations with the therapist will be almost always confidential. However, the therapist, by law, must report actual or suspected child, spouse, or elder abuse to the appropriate authorities. The therapist also has a legal responsibility to protect anyone I may threaten with violence, harmful, or dangerous actions (including those to myself) and may break the confidentiality of our communications if such a situation arises. The therapist will make reasonable efforts to resolve these situations before breaking confidentiality.
- I am financially responsible for this treatment and for any portion of the fees not reimbursed or covered by my health insurance.

I know of no reasons that I should not undertake this therapy and I agree to participate fully and voluntarily.

I have read and received the Office Policies & General Information Agreement for Psychotherapy Services and I agree to the policies. I have also received a copy of the HIPAA Notice of Privacy Practices. I have discussed any concerns about the policies with the therapist prior to signing this consent.

HIPAA Notice of Privacy Practices

THIS NOTICE DESCRIBES HOW MEDICAL INFORMATION ABOUT YOU MAY BE USED AND DISCLOSED AND HOW YOU CAN GET ACCESS TO THIS INFORMATION. PLEASE REVIEW IT CAREFULLY.

IT IS MY LEGAL DUTY TO SAFEGUARD YOUR PROTECTED HEALTH INFORMATION (PHI). By law I am required to insure that your PHI is kept private. The PHI is information created or noted by me that can be used to identify you. It contains data about your past, present, or future health or condition, the provision of health care services to you, or the payment for such health care. I am required to provide you with this Notice about my privacy procedures. “Use” of PHI means when I share, apply, utilize, examine, or analyze information within my office; PHI is “disclosed” when I release, transfer, give, or otherwise reveal it to a third party outside my office. With some exceptions, I may not use or disclose more of your PHI than is necessary to accomplish the purpose for which the use of disclosure is made; however, I am always legally required to follow the privacy practices described in this Notice.

Please note that I reserve the right to change the terms of this Notice and my privacy policies at any time. Any changes will apply to your PHI already on file. Before I make any important changes to my policies, I will immediately change this Notice and post a new copy of it in my office. You may request a copy of this Notice from me at any time.

I am permitted to use and disclose your PHI without specific prior written authorization for the purposes of treatment, payment, and health care operations.

- Treatment means providing, coordinating, or managing health care and related services by one or more health care providers. Examples of treatment would include psychotherapy, medication management, etc.
- Payment means such activities as obtaining reimbursement for services, confirming coverage, billing or collection activities, and utilization review. An example would be providing your PHI to your insurance company for processing purposes.
- Health care operations include the business aspects of running the office, such as conducting quality assessment and improvement activities, auditing functions, cost-management analysis, and customer service. I may also provide your PHI to my attorneys, accountants, consultants, and others to make sure that I am in compliance with applicable laws.

In addition, your PHI may be used without your consent or authorization for the following reasons:

1. When disclosure is required by federal, state, or local law; judicial, board, or administrative proceedings; or, law enforcement. Example: I may make a disclosure to the appropriate officials when a law requires me to report information to government agencies, law enforcement personnel and/or in an administrative proceeding.
2. If disclosure is compelled by a party to a proceeding before a court of an administrative agency pursuant to its lawful authority.
3. If disclosure is required by a search warrant lawfully issued to a governmental law enforcement agency.
4. If disclosure is compelled by the patient or the patient’s representative pursuant to Florida Health and Safety Codes or to corresponding federal statutes of regulations, such as the Privacy Rule that requires this Notice.
5. To avoid harm. I may provide PHI to law enforcement personnel or persons able to prevent or mitigate a serious threat to the health or safety of a person or the public.

6. If disclosure is compelled or permitted by the fact that you are in such mental or emotional condition as to be dangerous to yourself or the person or property of others, and if I determine that disclosure is necessary to prevent the threatened danger.
7. If disclosure is mandated by the Florida Department of Children and Families reporting law. For example, if I have a reasonable suspicion of child abuse or neglect.
8. If disclosure is mandated by the Florida DCF Elder/Dependent Adult Abuse reporting law. For example, if I have a reasonable suspicion of elder abuse or dependent adult abuse.
9. If disclosure is compelled or permitted by the fact that you tell me of a serious/imminent threat of physical violence by you against a reasonably identifiable victim or victims.
10. For public health activities. For example, in the event of your death, if a disclosure is permitted or compelled, I may need to give the county coroner information about you.
11. For health oversight activities. For example, I may be required to provide information to assist the government in the course of an investigation or inspection of a health care organization or provider.
12. For specific government functions. For example, I may disclose PHI of military personnel and veterans under certain circumstances. Or in the interests of national security, such as protecting the President of the United States or assisting with intelligence operations.
13. For research purposes. In certain circumstances, I may provide PHI in order to conduct medical research.
14. For Workers' Compensation purposes. I may provide PHI in order to comply with Workers' Compensation laws.
15. If an arbitrator or arbitration panel compels disclosure, when arbitration is lawfully requested by either party, pursuant to subpoena duces tectum (e.g., a subpoena for mental health records) or any other provision authorizing disclosure in a proceeding before an arbitrator or arbitration panel.
16. I am permitted to contact you, without your prior authorization, to provide appointment reminders/confirmations or information about alternative or other health-related benefits and services that may be of interest to you.
17. If disclosure is required or permitted to a health oversight agency for oversight activities authorized by law. For example, when compelled by U.S. Secretary of Health and Human Services to investigate or assess my compliance with HIPAA regulations.
18. If disclosure is otherwise specifically required by law.

There are certain uses and disclosures that require you to have the opportunity to object, such as disclosures to family, friends, or others. I may provide your PHI to a family member, friend, or other individual who you indicate is involved in your care or responsible for the payment for your health care, unless you object in whole or in part. Retroactive consent may be obtained in emergency situations.

Other uses and disclosures require your prior written authorization. In any other situation not described above, I will request your written authorization before using or disclosing any of your PHI. Even if you have signed an authorization to disclose your PHI, you may later revoke that authorization in writing, to stop any future uses and disclosures (assuming that I have not taken any action subsequent to the original authorization) of your PHI by my office.

YOU HAVE CERTAIN RIGHTS REGARDING YOUR PHI

- The right to see and get copies of your PHI. In general, you have the right to see your PHI that is in my possession, or to get copies of it; however, you must request it in writing. If I do not have your PHI, but know who does, I will advise you how you can get it. You will receive a response from my office within 30 days of receiving your written request. Under certain circumstances, I may feel that I must deny your request, but if I do, I will give you in writing the reasons for the denial. I will also explain your right to have my denial reviewed. If you ask for copies of your PHI, I will charge you not more than $0.25 per page. I may see fit to provide you with a summary or explanation of the PHI, but only if you agree to it, as well as the cost, in advance.
- The right to request limits on uses and disclosures of your PHI. You have the right to ask that I limit how I use and disclose your PHI. While I will consider your request, I am not legally bound to agree. If I do agree to your request, I will put those limits in writing and abide by them except in emergency situations. You do not have the right to limit the uses and disclosures that I am legally required or permitted to make.
- The right to choose how I send your PHI to you. It is your right to ask that your PHI be sent to you at an alternate address (for example, your work address rather than your home address) or by an alternate method. I am obliged to agree to your request, providing that I can give you the PHI in the format you request without undue inconvenience.

- The right to get a list of the disclosures I have made. You are entitled to a list of disclosures of your PHI that I have made. The list will not include uses or disclosures to which you have already consented, such as treatment, payment, or health care operations, sent directly to you or your family; neither will the list include disclosures made for national security purposes to corrections or law enforcement personnel, or disclosures made before April 15, 2003. After April 15, 2003, disclosure records will be held for six years. I will respond to your request for an accounting of disclosures within 60 days of receiving your request. The list I give you will include disclosures made in the previous six years, unless you indicate a shorter period. The list will include the date of the disclosure, to whom PHI was disclosed (including address, if known), a description of the information disclosed, and the reason for disclosure. I will provide the list to you at no cost, unless you make more than one request in the same year, in which I will charge you a reasonable sum based on a set fee for each additional request.
- The right to amend your PHI. If you believe that there is some error in your PHI or that important information has been omitted, it is your right to request that I correct the existing information or add the missing information. Your request and the reason for the request must be made in writing. You will receive a response within 60 days of my receipt of your request. I may deny your request, in writing, if I find that the PHI is (a) correct and complete, (b) forbidden to be disclosed, (c) not part of my records, or (d) written by someone else. My denial must be in writing and must state the reasons for denial. It must also explain your right to file a written statement objecting to the denial. If you do not file a written objection, you still have the right to ask that your request and my denial be attached to any future disclosures of your PHI. If I approve your request, I will make the change(s) to your PHI. Additionally, I will tell you that the changes have been made, and will advise all others who need to know about the change(s) to your PHI.
- The right to complain about my privacy practices. If, in your opinion, I may have violated your privacy rights, or if you object to a decision made about access to your PHI, you are entitled to file a complaint to me. You may also send a written complaint to: Secretary of the Department of Health and Human Services; 200 Independence Avenue S.W.; Washington, D.C. 20201

This Notice is effective as of April 15, 2003, and a copy of it will be provided to you upon request.
